Days 2-3: (16hour session) Patrol Rifle Techniques> Basic patrol rifle; sling and various equipment, zeroing, sight bore offset, carrying, deployment, loading, reloading, firing, positional shooting, transitioning to pistol, weapon retention.

Required equipment: 400 rounds of rifle, 25 rounds of pistol ammo, fully duty gear, body armor, ear and eye protection and brimmed hat. Patrol style rifle, Three magazines, high power binoculars or spotting scope, brimmed hat, ear protection, and wrap around shatter resistant eye protection, hydration system and simple form of carbohydrate, pistol with three magazines, quality knee and elbow pads.

This course is facilitated by an all-female cadre of instructors. LouKa Tactical trainers are the nation's most experienced law enforcement instructors who specialize in training female officers in the "hard skills." LouKa co-owner Lou Ann Hamblin has trained nearly 4200 law enforcement women in pistol alone and is best known for Building Warrior Women multi-disciplinary training events. She has taught at a national level for over 25 years, is an adjunct instructor for Team One Network and sits on the board of directors for IALEFI. LouKa's training has recently been featured on PoliceOne.com and Officer.com e-publications. For more information go to: www.loukactical.com
