Purpose: This class is a solid 2 days of training. The purpose of this custom 2-day class is to analyze and evaluate cover options relative to various ballistic threats, ballistic considerations and dangers of over penetration while shooting through a variety of mediums with various calibers. Secondary projectiles and skipping surfaces and deflection safety issues. Optimal shooting positions from within and around vehicles and other points of cover. Individual and team movement and contingency tactics will be covered as well as case studies to include vehicle/officer counter-ambush techniques.

Requirements: Attendees are required to wear functional clothing, gun belts based on assignment, knee pads. 400 rounds of pistol ammunition. Department shotgun and rifle if applicable. 5 rounds of 00 buck, 5 slugs, 5 birdshot, 50 rounds of rifle. Participants are encouraged to bring individual weapon systems to explore their capabilities, i.e. AKs, .308, less lethal, compound bow, out of service body armor, etc. If it can be performed safely, we'll shoot it.

Bagged lunch, water source and simple carbohydrate is also highly recommended.

About LouKa Tactical: In business since 1999 it is the largest female owned and operated company of its kind with a diverse cadre of instructors with unique talents.
