Festive 4th Quarter Highlights

Season's Greetings!

As we bring 2010 to a close we want to thank everyone who hosted and attended a LouKa Tactical event this year! We appreciate the support! We have been very blessed. May 2011 bring you new opportunities for success, health and happiness!

The International Association of Women Police (IAWP) Conference 2010- Minneapolis, MN

What an awesome event! LouKa Tactical brought three instructors to this year's training event. We enjoyed the hospitality of the host who treated us like gold. Looking forward to next year in Lexington, KY. Not only did we present in the area of Sports Vision (Vonk) but we also had the opportunity to bring a pistol class to the party.

In conjunction with Glock we were able to raise $510.00 for the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Awareness Foundation. Thanks Warren Ackerson and Glock for donating a pistol for the cause!

Kathy was one of many presenters at the National Tactical Officers Association's annual conference held in Pittsburg. She teamed up with Trisha Sterland (Polar heart rate monitors) and Paul Robbins (Athletes Performance). Kathy's presentation guided tac operators through the decision making process of proper nutrition for the SWAT athlete and provided ass kicking exercises as well as a very functional obstacle course.

A constant reminder that you have only 1*...
Make it hard.

At a time of choices you can only choose one... naughty or nice? Either direction, be decisive!

See you out there!
