Competent women are
now, more than ever,
finding themselves in specialty units that are very physically and mentally demanding.

Instructor News:

Commander Kris Mienert was awarded the Carolen Bailey Mentorship Award through the Minnesota Association of Women Police this month.

This award goes to any law enforcement officer who encompasses demonstrable skill or actions that have (1) provided assistance to women in law enforcement, (2) developed programs or policies favorable to women, (3) served on committees to review women's issues and propose recommendations or (4) other skills or activities that have advanced women in policing.

Congrats Kris! You are most deserving....

Iowa Association of Women Police Annual Conference

Featuring S.A. Patricia Thompson: Patty Introduced the "Four Flames" approach to developing leadership skills for women in law enforcement. Her evaluations were some of the best we have ever seen. Nicely done!
