Event Description: "Building Warrior Women" This is a one of a kind training event that has been conducted nationally and is facilitated by an all female cadre of instructors who specialize in training female officers in professional development and the essential “hard to kill skills.” Participants may attend a single day or all three days learning sound concepts, tactics and techniques that will build confidence and competence personally and professionally! This event is supported by the National Tactical Officers Association (NTOA) and sponsored in part by: ESS Eyewear, and Survival Body Armor.

Day 1: (8-hour session)

- "Building Warrior Women"> Workshop-based Presentation Featuring Dr. Penny Phelps, Captain with the Monroe County, Sheriff's Office, FL.

Day 2: (8-hour session)

- "Officer Down, Self Help, Buddy Care and Team Scenario-based Training"> Hands on practical exercises, case study review and reality based training scenarios. Duty belts/gear and tourniquet.

Day 3: (8-hour session)

- Precision Pistol > Duty belts/gear including 200 rounds of pistol. Body armor, wrap around eye protection and ear protection. Through intensive range work the female pistol operator will be provided tools that will increase her ability to deliver her weapon system efficiently and effectively particularly in the area of shooting precise accuracy A water source and simple carbohydrate are highly recommended. No one in the industry has trained more female officers behind the pistol than LouKa Tactical.
