Purpose: The purpose of this 2-day class is to improve the uniform and plain clothes officer's shooting performance as it relates to surviving a lethal encounter. Through intensive range work the pistol operator will increase their ability to deliver their weapon system efficiently and effectively particularly in the area of shooting with speed. Performance based focus areas include problem solving, single hand and support hand shooting, expeditious stoppage clearing and reloading, pistol ground fighting, target-focused shooting, shooting with movement, close quarter work, individual and team competitions.

Requirements: Attendees are required to bring 400 rounds of standard pistol ammunition, brimmed hat, wrap-around eye protection, ear protection, pistol with three magazines. ***A water source and simple carbohydrate is highly recommended.

About LouKa Tactical: In business since 1999 it is the largest female owned and operated company of its kind with a diverse cadre of instructors with unique talents. Co-owner Lou Ann

Hamblin retired from law enforcement having served for 22 years working uniform and training as well as undercover to include a special assignment with the DEA. She holds a master's degree in performance technology from the University of Michigan. She specializes in training female officers and is a certified firearms and defensive tactics instructor in a variety of disciplines. To date she has trained just over 4700 women in pistol classes internationally. She is a Team One Network adjunct instructor and an H & K Master Pistol Instructor. She instructs locally and nationally in the areas of instructor development, training for specialty units and female officer survival to include presentations at the following conferences: Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE), The International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainers Association (ILEETA), The International Police Mountain Bike Association (IPMBA), and The International Association of Law Enforcement Firearms Instructors (IALEFI). Lou Ann also serves on the Board of Directors for IALEFI and was named ILEETA's "Iron Cop" for 2009 conference. She currently serves on advisory boards for PoliceOne.com, and is a former presenter with Calibre Press Women's Street Survival Seminars, of which she co-wrote.
