About LouKa Tactical: We have proudly served the public safety training profession since 1999 and have access to some of the finest instructors and resources in the United States. Each instructor brings diversity and a high level of professionalism. Together our depth and synergy are unmatched. Not only are we the largest company of its kind in the Nation, but we are also considered to be the best by the industry in which we serve. Lou Ann Hamblin retired after 22 years of police service Lou Ann Hamblin specializes in training female officers having trained over 6500 women in pistol alone and is a certified firearms and defensive tactics instructor in a variety of disciplines. She is a Team One Network adjunct instructor and Master Pistol Instructor through H & K. Over the last 30 years Lou Ann has instructed internationally in the areas of instructor development, training for specialty units and female police officer's performance improvement and professional development including the Kuwaiti Female Special Forces and Ford Motor Company E.P. Teams. Beverly Price retired from the Burnsville Police Department after serving for 27 years. During her service with Burnsville Police, she worked in different divisions of the department. Her passion has been working on patrol for many years, but she also worked Crime Prevention, Bike Patrol, Background Investigator, Multi-Housing, School Source Officer, and assisted with the Street Crimes Unit. She has taught in-service defensive tactics and firearms and has served as an FTO for her agency. Beverly is a Medal of Valor recipient honored by her agency for her heroic efforts in an officer involved shooting incident. Lt. Dawn Reisinger has been a certified law enforcement officer in the State of Florida since 2000. She is currently employed with the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office in Tampa, FL. Dawn's police experience includes duties as a Field Training Officer and is also assigned to the department's training division which includes training newly hired cadets as well as the highly acclaimed SOT (Sheriff's Orientation Training) which is a highly structured two week live in program designed to introduce the sheriff's office mission and values, firearms and physical skills training to new cadets. Dawn's K-9 partner "Keeper" brings warm and fuzzies to her agency and her community.
